

Merry Christmas from the Zaeske Home 2013

Dear Family and Friends,

It's that time of year once again. This year was a much better year than last year. Fred is doing great from his open-heart surgery last December 18th. This year it was Dennis' turn. He had surgery October 16th and it was on his liver, he had a growth that was three-inch oval that had to be burned or the blood vessel could have burst and he would have bled to death. The surgery went like a charm, but the aftermath was terrible. We were afraid that we were going to lose him. He had two extra trips to the hospital and each stay lasted six to seven days. He was off work seven weeks. He went back yesterday. He still has to make sure that he does not over do. I'm doing great for a change.

December 29, 2012, my middle grandson, Drew got married. He married a girl named Carolyn Jean, goes by CJ. On July 12th, they gave us a beautiful little girl named Genesis.

Genesis about 12 hours old in the picture above.

We had a wonderful Thanksgiving Day. We had 19 people and plenty of food. Everybody pitched in with the dinner.

I am completely decorated for Christmas this year and I had plenty of help from Kitty, our cat. Here she is in the garland on the coffee table. The other one is her sleeping in a fence yard I made for one of the animated toys. It is 9 X 9. Right now, she is on the copier washing herself and looking at me.

Running out of room. Must close. Love and Prayers from all of the Zaeske family.
